

Wallace Watling Timeline Activity

Edward Wallace Waits Watling joins the 73rd Militia Regiment (Sussex, NB) – 1912	Edward Wallace Waits Watling is born – March 16, 1888 – Chatham, NB
 Father, Alexander MacNaughton Watling is born March 27, 1848 – Black River Bridge, NB	 Edward Wallace Waits Watling volunteers for the Canadian Over-Seas Expeditionary Force in Saint John, NB – April 10, 1915
James Petrie Street Watling volunteers for the Canadian Over-Seas Expeditionary Force in Amherst (Nova Scotia) – April 22, 1915 – and is assigned to the Canadian Army Medical Corp.	Alexander Watling is born – January 29, 1890 – Chatham, NB
 Edward Wallace Waits Watling is assigned to the 145th (Westmorland County) Battalion, with a rank of Lieutenant - 1916	 Alexander Watling volunteers for the Canadian Over-Seas expeditionary Force in Saint John, NB – April 10, 1915
 Edward Wallace Waits Watling, stationed at Camp Valcartier (Quebec), is deemed fit for overseas duty – September 13, 1916	 Alexander Watling volunteers for the 15th Battalion Canadian Expeditionary Force at Camp Valcartier (Quebec) – September 4, 1914.
 Jubal Watling is born, February 27, 1876 – Black River Bridge, NB	 Alexander Watling re-enlists for in Halifax (Nova Scotia) – October 1, 1917 – and is assigned to the No. 8 Special Service Company CEF

Wallace Watling Timeline Activity

	Mother, Catherine Kelly, is born July 17, 1845 - Little Branch, Black River, N. B.		Alexander MacNaughton Watling & Catherine Kelly are married, June 18, 1874 – Chatham, NB
	George Maxwell Watling volunteers for the Canadian Over-Seas Expeditionary Force in Amherst (Nova Scotia) and is assigned to the 193rd Battalion (Cumberland Highlanders) – March 8, 1916		Christina Mary Watling volunteers for the Canadian Medical Corp in Montreal (Quebec) - April 13, 1915
George Maxwell Watling is born – July 14, 1884 – Chatham, NB		James Petrie Street Watling is born October 7, 1882 – Chatham, NB
Alexander MacNaughton Watling dies in Chatham, NB – June 6, 1917		Christina Mary Watling is born November 22, 1874 – Black River Bridge, NB
Emily Jane Watling is born January 20, 1886 – Chatham, NB		June 6, 1917 – Christina Watling is on duty in France.
James Petrie Street Watling is wounded at the Somme – September 1916		John Gordon ("Jack") Watling is born August 19, 1877
	Elizabeth ("Bessie") Duffus Cunard Watling is born November 19, 1880 – Chatham, NB		Nursing Sister Christina Mary ("Teenie") Watling sails to England onboard the SS Metagama – May 6, 1915

Wallace Watling Timeline Activity

	June 6, 1917 – Jubal Watling is living in South Africa		June 6, 1917 – Emily Watling is a Nurse in Providence, Rhode Island
	June 6, 1917 – Bessie Watling is living at home (Queen Street, Chatham)	June 6, 1917 – Jack Watling is living in Campbellton, NB
June 6, 1917 – James Watling is invalided home from the Front and is living in Amherst (Nova Scotia)		June 6, 1917 – Max Watling is home on furlough from England, and living in Amherst (Nova Scotia)
June 6, 1917 – Wallace Watling is overseas.		June 6, 1917 Alexander Watling is invalided home and has received his discharge
	Christina Mary ("Teenie") Watling graduates from Nursing school, Montreal General Hospital (McGill University) – 1909		Nursing Sister Christina Mary ("Teenie") Watling is awarded a Royal Red Cross by His Majesty King George V - 1919
	Nursing Sister Christina Mary ("Teenie") Watling serving with the 3rd Canadian General Hospital, Shorncliffe (England) – May 28 – October 15, 1915		Nursing Sister Christina Mary ("Teenie") Watling serving with the 3rd Canadian General Hospital, Salonike (Greece) – November 9 1915 to May 18, 1916

Wallace Watling Timeline Activity

	Nursing Sister Christina Mary ("Teenie") Watling serving with the 3rd Canadian General Hospital, Kalamaria (Greece) – May 19, 1916 to August 17, 1917		Nursing Sister Christina Mary ("Teenie") Watling serving with the 3rd Canadian General Hospital, Basingstoke (England) – September 18, 1917 to July 2, 1919.
	Lieutenant Wallace Watling serving with the 10th Battalion ("Calgary Highlanders") – October, 1918		Lieutenant Wallace Watling wins the Command Novices Unit Team Boxing Tournament at Camp Aldershot (England) – March 1918
	Lieutenant Wallace Watling is runner up winner of the Command Rugby Tournament at Camp Aldershot (England) – 1917-1918		Lieutenant Wallace Watling wins a Military Cross and Bar for his actions during the attack on Arleaux (France) – October 12, 1918